HAROLD HOTZ COMPLETES HIS TRANS-CONTINENTAL TOUR

This is the last of my newspaper reports of the trips, as I expect to be at home again by the time this is in print.

Wednesday, Nov. 4th, we left the beautiful city of Washington, D. C. at 8:20 a. m. That whole day and night was spent on the train and the journey, during the course of which we passed by many rolling hills, the typical country of the Southern States, was most interesting.

The following morning, we arrived at Atlanta, Georgia, where we were met by the Boy Scouts of the city, by whom we were shown the notable points of interest, among which were the County Court House, State Capitol, State Museum, City Auditorium, and other public buildings.

We then had a special motor-ride to Stone Mountain—the largest rock in the world. Here we had a picnic lunch, and enjoyed the novelty of picking cotton in a real cotton field. After this, we were given an automobile ride through the city and its near-by country. We left Atlanta early in the evening, and arrived in Montgomery at 11:00 p. m.

Friday, Nov. 6th, we tramped around, visiting the historic buildings of the Confederate Capitol, where we met Governor O'Neal and State Agricultural experts. After lunch, we had another auto ride, visiting a typical mountain plantation—cotton fields, cotton gins, and sugar-cane fields. Here we partook of a dinner, given by the various organizations of the city.

The next day found us in New Orleans, where we inspected the old French quarter, which reminded us of a side street in Paris, or in some other foreign country. We also visited the old French Market. Another automobile drive followed this through the surrounding country. We enjoyed a citrus luncheon at the State Museum, after which we were driven to the wharves and levees, where we saw large quantities of baled cotton.

After a trip across the Mississippi, we were given a yacht ride up a bayou, which reminds one of the glades and swamps we have read about. Here a great reclamation project was being carried on. That evening a picture show furnished amusement.

Sunday morning, after quite an elaborate breakfast, we visited a plantation, consisting chiefly of rice, corn, sweet potatoes and sugar cane, the latter consisting of 4200 acres alone. After this expedition, we visited a sugar refinery seeing the entire process. We left there, chewing on sugar cane, at noon. At Lafayette, we were given a luncheon by the Southwestern Louisiana Development Bureau. Here we visited the well-known Agricultural High School, gardens and orange orchards. After this, another automobile ride was given us, we leaving the city at 4:30 p. m.

On our westward way, we saw many rice plantations. Monday was spent at San Antonio, Texas, where a sight-seeing bus took us around visiting the Alamo, the spot on which that historic battle was fought seventy-eight years ago. We also visited two Missions, which are handsome in architecture. The United States Post office, United States Arsenal, United States Army Post and Mexican Settlement were among the places of interest inspected.

We were given a warm reception and royally entertained at the High School, and after lunch we visited the industrial enterprises of the city among which are: saddle factory, flour mill, candy factory (whose goods were amply sampled), macaroni factory, and the Eagle Brand and the Chili Powder Companies plants.

Tuesday and Wednesday will be spent on the train—a day in Los Angeles, and then, "Home, Sweet Home" again.

Yours Respectfully,

HAROLD K. HOTZ

"Home, Sweet Home" was arrived at by the fortunate Sonoma High School boy Friday night of last week. All of the interesting details of Harold's delightful trans-continental tour were given our readers by himself during the trip, but a fund of pleasing personal impressions and happenings remains to be told family and friends, and "the fellows" at school. The trip was certainly one never-to-be-forgotten, and it means that next year the Agricultural Club of the Sonoma High School will have an increased membership, and there's going to be some mighty excellent farming accomplished, and there'll be more than one ambitious, determined Club member give up his summer vacation in the endeavor to win just such another trip as Harold Hotz enjoyed.

The actual benefit resulting from the High School Agricultural Club and its contest has not even yet been realized. Another year and the redoubled efforts and interest put forth by the boys will demonstrate the good to accrue from the movement.

SCOTS CONFIR THIRD DEGREE

Of Masonry Before Temple Lodge F & A. M., in the Presence of Many Representatives of Other Lodges.

Last Saturday night was an auspicious occasion in the history of local Masonry, when the Degree Team of San Francisco Pyramid No. 1, Ancient Egyptian Order of Scots conferred the Third Degree of Masonry before Temple Lodge, No. 14, F. & A. M.

The capacity of spacious Masonic Hall was taxed to its utmost by the assembled company, which included visitors from San Francisco and Oakland Pyramids of Scots, and representatives from Petaluma, Healdsburg and Santa Rosa Masonic Lodges.

The Degree work was in the hands of the following committee of Scots: Messrs: Ira S. Hobbs, Wm. Burdick and A. L. W. Zillmer.

The Degree Team comprised the following named: Geo. W. Lunt, worshipful master; Simon MacDonald, chaplain; J. Claude Perry, senior warden; W. G. Green, junior warden; Jos. A. Friedman, secretary; Karl Eber, treasurer; Wm. Burdell, senior deacon; C. H. Hjul, junior deacon; C. F. Werner, senior steward; Ira S. Hobbs, junior steward; John Wiese, Jr., marshal; F. C. D. Binge, Tyler; J. J. Gallagher, Henry Wenzel, Hother Glahn and Louis Waas.

Following the business session, the hosts of the evening escorted their guests to Union Hall, where a sumptuous supper was served by Mine Host Frank Koenig. The feast was most bountiful, complete in its details and all that the most fastidious could require. One hundred and sixty-four gentlemen sat down to the banquet board, where oratory, song, witticisms and jolly good fellowship prevailed.

Sunday the visitors were entertained by their local brethren very pleasantly. Autos were provided and the guests were shown the beauties of the peerless Sonoma Valley. On the late train, the visitors took their departure, expressing cordial appreciation of the entertainment provided by their hosts, the Masonic fraternity of Sonoma, with the assurance that soon again the Scots, individually and collectively, would visit the historic City of Sonoma.

ENTERTAIN AT DINNER PARTY

Mrs. Archie Gale, of El Verano, was hostess to a number of friends at a dinner party, Monday evening of last week, and the menu was elegant, the preparing and serving of which proved the charming hostess an adept in the culinary art. To the queen's taste was the crab salad and mayonnaise, the roast turkey with cranberry sauce, sweet potatoes Southern style, creamed cauliflower, mince pie and other accessories of the sumptuous repast.

The Gale home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, and the remaining hours after dinner were pleasantly spent in social converse and music. Mrs. Steckmeyer contributed greatly to the entertainment of the guests by her splendid rendition of several fine piano numbers.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Archie Gale, Mr. and Mrs. J. Steckmeyer; Misses Masterson, Ruth McAfee and Ruth Fisher; Messrs. Bert Gale and Daniel Singleton, the latter gentleman, "Foreign Minister to Ireland," being a visitor in our valley at the present time.

SONOMA VALLEY COUPLE RE-UNITED

In the twilight of life, love has again returned into the lives of Mrs. Elsie Pilastre, sixty-two, and Emil Pilastre, sixty-four, of El Verano, and the divorce decree has been set aside and they have decided to re-wed and spend the declining years of their lives in happiness, says the Press Democrat. The marriage license was secured Monday last, and the couple were again united. Both have many friends in this valley, who heartily rejoice with the children of Mr. and Mrs. Pilastre that a completely reunited family will gather round the festive board Thursday of next week, thus making the time-honored holiday a day of real Thanksgiving, indeed.

YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE BALL

Masquerade To Be the Attraction on Thanksgiving Eve—Fine Music, Good Supper and Handsome Prizes.

It isn't necessary, we are sure, to remind our readers that Wednesday of next week is Thanksgiving Eve—the date on which it has been an annual custom for Sonoma Valley Council, Young Men's Institute to give a Grand Masque Ball. This year will prove no exception, and all who enjoy the merry revelry of a masquerade will be afforded the privilege on the eve of the time-honored holiday. Music is to be furnished by the Pauli-Gottenberg Orchestra, and a fine, turkey supper will be served by the management in the Union Hotel dining-room.

Handsome prizes for the most original and best sustained characters are to be awarded, and considerable competition will prevail if current reports are correct.

Those who have not already secured their costumes, and wish to attend the ball incognito, may obtain the coveted disguise through John F. Picetti. There's no time to be lost, ye merry masqueraders, if you'd have your costumes on time, for the ball, you know, is less than a week away.

Wednesday night of next week is the date, remember, and you don't want to miss this Young Men's Institute Ball for more reasons than the mere fact that a splendid good time awaits all who attend.

The Index-Tribune ventures to remind those of its readers who are regular attendants at dancing parties, that throughout the year the Young Men's Institute has been host to many, many of you at the pleasant socials given by the fraternity. To reciprocate now would be a nice courtesy on the part of those who have been entertained, and would insure the financial success of the undertaking.

FORMER SONOMA RESIDENT WEDDED

Wednesday evening of last week, in Holy Cross Church, San Francisco, Dodge A. Riedy claimed as his bride, Miss Marie Green, late of Michigan. The sacred edifice was artistically decorated for the nuptials, which were solemnized by Rev. Father McGinty. A reception and an elegant repast followed the ceremony at the home of the groom's parents.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Riedy, who will be well and favorably remembered by many of our people, they having been residents of this valley for time about seven years ago. He is a gentleman of splendid attainments and a successful architect, holding an important position in the city engineer's office of San Francisco. His bride is a lovely and accomplished young woman. The groom is a nephew of Mrs. F. W. Boynton, a prominent resident of our valley, who had the pleasure of being present at the wedding.

After a honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Riedy will be at home to their friends in their handsomely furnished apartments in the Western Addition.

Sonoma friends unite with others in extending congratulations to the newly-wedded twain, and wishing for them a union of happiness and prosperity.

BOLOMEY-HORNE NUPTIALS AT NAPA

The wedding of Miss Lucienne Bolomey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bolomey of Oakville, and Stanley W. Horne, of Yountville, occurred at Napa on Monday, Nov. 16th.

The ceremony was a very simple one, the only witnesses being the bridal attendants, Miss Gertrude Breitenbach of Sonoma, and the groom's brother, Daniel C. Horne. The bride was becomingly gowned in a tailored suit of tan broadcloth. Following the wedding, a sumptuous breakfast was served at the Hotel Berlin, after which the happy couple departed for San Francisco, thence to Los Angeles, on a honeymoon trip. On their return, they will reside in a pretty bungalow at Yountville. The many Sonoma friends of the fair bride wish for the newly-wedded twain much prosperity, and a union blessed with harmony and happiness.

NATIVE SONS AT SANTA ROSA

Joint Initiation of Representatives from Sonoma County Parlor Conducted at Big Meeting Sunday.

Over forty representatives of Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons, headed by the Parlor's handsomely-uniformed Drum Corps, attended the big reunion and joint initiation held in Santa Rosa, Sunday last. In fact these Native Sons of ours were represented by a larger delegation than any other lodge in the county, and our city is quite naturally very proud of the splendid showing made by Sonoma Parlor, not only on this occasion, but also at home and abroad at many recent public functions.

Sonoma's Parlor of Native Sons is made up of the most energetic and public-spirited young men in the valley, who are strongly imbued with the true Californian pride and progressiveness, and a desire to strengthen and promote the organization which unites the sons of the Golden West. The result has been that Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons is the most flourishing of the city's fraternities, with a steadily increasing membership.

A class of twelve candidates, representing a number of the Parlor in the county, were given the membership degree, the work being splendidly performed by the Past President's team from San Francisco. Of the class of candidates initiated, six were added to the membership roll of Sonoma Parlor.

At noon, a magnificent turkey dinner was served in the banquet hall of the Native Sons' building. Gathered around the banquet board were nearly three hundred representatives of fine Californian manhood.

R. A. Long acted as toastmaster and welcomed the visitors. An eloquent address was made by Judge Emmet Seawell. Others to make speeches were Grand Trustee Wm. Treager of Los Angeles; Past Grand President Charles Becker of San Francisco; John Saunders of Sebastopol Parlor; Mr. Murphy of Petaluma Parlor; Claude Howard of Healdsburg Parlor, and Jesse F. Prestwood, past president Sonoma Parlor.

TURKEY SHOOT TO TAKE PLACE

Turkey shoots and raffles are the order of the hour. Several have been held during the past weeks; others are scheduled to take place during the next month.

These turkey shoots afford no end of genuine amusement to the many skillful marksmen in the valley, and each event is looked forward to with the keenest zest.

Tonight, at the Association's hall at El Verano, a turkey raffle is to be given by the El Verano Development Association. The raffle is to commence at eight o'clock, and a large number of Sonomites are planning a cheaply-secured turkey for their Thanksgiving dinner, as a result of the luck confidently anticipated at the El Verano raffle tonight.

There's to be two of these events "pulled off" tomorrow afternoon, one at the Conrad Kiser farm, and the other at the M. Clements ranch at El Verano. Both of these shoots commence at one o'clock, but undoubtedly the "turkey hunters" will divide their time and test their skill at both places, carrying away the splendid birds as trophies.

Another big event in this line is to be given by A. W. Lehrke, at New Vineburg Inn, Sunday, Dec. 6th. It matters not what weather conditions chance to be on the date named, rain or shine, Mr. Lehrke will carry out the program arranged for the day. Two hundred and fifty turkeys, geese and ducks will be provided for the shoot, and the day's sports will include brocco riding by the fearless Millerick Brothers and the free serving of refreshments. Read the big bills and bear in mind the date on which the "big doings" occur—Sunday, December 6th.

Loans To Be Obtained

Six Per Cent Loans—Obtainable on farm, ranch and city property—to improve, purchase or remove incumbrance. Liberal options; five years before making payment on principal, etc. For the proposition address: Assets Department, J. P., at 1410 Bush Building, Dallas, Texas, or 422-23 First National Bank Building, Denver, Colorado.

SONOMA EXPERIENCING SUBSTANTIAL GROWTH

One needs but to drive or stroll around town to fully realize that Sonoma may well be characterized as a city of progress and enterprise.

Sonoma has never experienced a boom, and it is the wish of her people that she never shall. A city of steady, substantial, permanent growth—that is what the residents of this historic spot have striven for, and that is what the oldest town in Northern California has become.

And the growth of Sonoma continues to a surprising degree, and on every side now—when times are actually dull and money scarce—the ring of the hammer and buzz of the saw proclaim the construction of splendid buildings, some of which are additions to the business district, while others grace the resident part of town.

The beautiful residence of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. A. Poppe, on Napa street, which has been in course of construction for some months past, will be fully completed this week, and Mr. and Mrs. Poppe will move therein next week.

This handsome home, which is of stucco and erected at a considerable cost, is certainly an ornament to the city, and a noteworthy reflection of the superior skill of Contractor Ralph Murphy.

L. M. Tarten, the well-known Napa architect, is to be complimented on the admirable and convenient arrangement of the residence, which contains seven rooms, sleeping porch, and all other conveniences of the modern, up-to-date home.

The woodwork throughout is of exquisitely-grained Oregon pine, with panelings of Eastern gum. The spacious living and dining-rooms, the den and halls are fitted with hardwood floors, and no detail is lacking to add to the beauty or comfort of the handsome home, which we hope will be enjoyed by Attorney and Mrs. Poppe many years to come.

A short distance from the Poppe home, on the north side of Napa street, the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. B. Small is well under way, and if the weather man will but prove generously helpful, and permit the roofing of the building before the rainy season sets in, the work of construction will proceed very rapidly, and Contractor Small and his force of carpenters will be ready in short order to turn the building over to the plasterers. H. J. McLaren has the contract for this part of the work and the gentleman is said to be an adept at the work.

Rapid progress is being made on the mammoth Maffai stone building, and already the structure is a creditable addition to that corner of town.

Peter Basaglia and his helpers have performed a fine piece of workmanship in the laying of the cement floors, and during this week Contractor Basaglia added to his force four skilled metropolitan mechanics to assist in the roofing of the building. The roof is a very substantial and non-combustible combination of gravel and tar. Next week, Mr. Basaglia and his force will commence the erection of the concrete walls.

During the past few days, while the roofing of the building was in progress, Contractor Wm. Russell, who has the woodwork in hand, spent the time in San Francisco purchasing the mill work for the front of the building, and next week, with these lumber supplies on hand, Mr. Russell will be in a position to maintain his reputation as a rapid and competent contractor.

The residence, which is also to be the office of the Western Union Telegraph Company, of Mrs. Ada Pauli and son Roy, is nearing completion, and within the next two weeks the building will be ready for occupancy. Contractor A. E. Warriner has added, in the Pauli building, another attractive and well-constructed structure to the many built by him.

Work on Sonoma Valley's fine $28,000 Grammar School has not been progressing as rapidly as is wished for by Contractor E. H. Ingraham, owing to the delay in the shipment in of lumber from the coast, the lack of the necessary supplies caused a suspension of work a few days this week.

With the arrival of the expected carload of lumber on Thursday, work was resumed, and Contractor Ingraham now hopes to continue to completion the work of construction.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION

President Woodrow Wilson has issued the following proclamation for Thanksgiving Day:

It has been the honored custom of our people to turn in fruitful autumn of the year in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for His many blessings and mercies to us as a Nation. The year that is now drawing to a close since we last observed our day of National thanksgiving has been, while a year of discipline because of the mighty forces of war and of change which have disturbed the world, also a year of special blessing to us.

It has been vouchsafed to us to remain at peace, with honor, and in some part to succor the suffering and supply the needs of those who are in want. We have been privileged by our own peace and self-control in some degree to steady the counsels and shape the hopes and purposes of a day of fear and distress. Our people have looked upon their own life as a Nation with deeper comprehension, a fuller realization of their blessings and a keener sense of the moral and practical significance of what their part among the nations of the world may come to be.

The hurtful effects of foreign war in their own industrial and commercial affairs have made them feel the more fully and see the more clearly their mutual dependence upon one another, and has stirred them to a helpful co-operation such as they have seldom practiced before. They have been quickened by a great moral stimulation. Their unmistakable ardor for peace, their earnest pity and disinterested sympathy for those who are suffering, their readiness to help and to think of the needs of others, has revealed them to themselves as well as to the world.

Our crops will feed all who need food; the self possession of our people amidst the most serious anxieties and difficulties and the steadiness and resourcefulness of our business men will serve other nations as well as our own.

The business of the country has been supplied with instrumentalities and the commerce of the world with new channels of trade and intercourse. The Panama Canal has been opened to the commerce of the nations. The two continents of America have been bound in closer ties of friendship; new instrumentalities of acquaintance, intercourse and mutual service. Never before have the people of the United States been so situated for their own advantage or the advantage of their neighbors or so equipped to serve themselves and mankind.

Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, and invite citizens throughout the land to cease from their wonted occupations and in their several homes and places of worship render thanks to Almighty God.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the City of Washington, the twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fourteen, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and thirty-ninth.

WHAT OUR NEAR-BY NEIGHBORS ARE DOING

VINEBURG

Miss Marguerite McDevitt, of Sonoma, was the guest of Miss Emily Batto, of Vineburg, the weekend.

Mrs. E. C. Caskey was a passenger on Tuesday morning's train, on a visit to the city by the Golden Gate.

Dolph Rubke says that the Vineburg business prospects were never brighter than at the present time and we believe him too.

E. J. Kannigiser, of Alameda, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Al Trautvetter, at "Brookside," on the Hyde tract, the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hansen entertained a number of their Vineburg friends, on Wednesday evening, at their Sonoma residence.

William Clewe, one of Sonoma's leading merchants and dried fruit buyers, was a visitor at Batto's Spur on Monday and Tuesday last.

Arthur Batto, vice-president of John Batto & Sons, transacted business connected with the firm in the metropolis the fore part of the week.

Miss Rose Baeglia, assistant bookkeeper of John Batto & Sons, after spending a week's vacation in the bay cities, returned to her desk on Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Erasmus are engaged in improving their pretty home at the Cooper Bridge, on Sonoma Creek, which is one of the most picturesque spots in Sonoma Valley.

Harry Brandt, marine engineer of San Francisco, was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Brandt, several days this week. Our Harry is one of the Vineburg boys that has made good.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Patto motored to Petaluma, Tuesday last, where they combined business with pleasure, and after being entertained by friends returned much pleased with their trip to "the egg city."

Lawrence Hnnter, one of our most esteemed young men, returned Monday of last week from Seattle, Washington. He says that the State voted "dry," and that he returned to "free California, where he can obtain honest employment and plenty of it.

A. W. Lehrke went to Mendocino County, on business on Wednesday last, and is not expected to return until Saturday next. During the gentleman's absence, his manager, Howard Brown, will be in charge of his business interests here. Mrs. Lehrke accompanied her husband on the trip.

Vineburg was well represented at the Native Sons' celebration in the City of Roses, Sunday last. Among the large delegation from this part of the valley were: Messrs. George McGill, Phillip Bill, Jr., Charles, Albert and Frank Groskopf. The "big three" all report a swell time.

Fred Hansen, the well-known leader of the Sonoma Drum Corps, and a progressive poultry man, accompanied by his wife and James L. Modini, Sonoma's baseball manager, were the guests of Howard Brown, at New Vineburg Inn, last Monday evening, and a pleasant time was enjoyed.

Vineburg will have another turkey shoot and raffle on Sunday, December 6th, at New Vineburg Inn. A. W. Lehrke, Prop. The Millerick Brothers of Schellville, Grand Prize Bronco Busters and Fancy Riders of California, will give an exhibition of their skill. Howard Brown, of Vineburg, and Fred Hansen, of Sonoma, will be the managers. Everyone Invited Refreshments Free.

EASY JIM.

SCHLLVILLE

The orchardists in this vicinity are quite busy pruning.

Tom Millerick was a San Francisco visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jake Schumacher spent Friday with friends in Petaluma.

A. Moebes came up from the Bay City, and spent the weekend at his comfortable home in Baxterville.

F. Morneiment, of San Francisco, left Wednesday, after spending a few days at his country home here.

Friends will be glad to learn that Mrs. Frank McGill is getting along nicely at the Broadway Sanitarium.

Erhard Steiger and family were entertained at dinner, Sunday last, at the home of the gentleman's father at Caliente.

THE BULOTTI BRICK BLOCK

Old Building To Be Torn Down and Replaced by Sp'endid, Two-Story Structure.

Sonoma's business center is to be beautified by another splendid business block, which is to be constructed for Fred Bulotti, cashier of the First National Bank.

The building—a two-story brick—will replace the present store, now occupied by Nichelini & Maffei, the work of tearing down the old structure to commence immediately on the removal of Nichelini & Maffei into their new and commodious quarters.

The storeroom of the new Bulotti building is to be occupied by John F. Picetti of the Sonoma Valley Furniture Company, and the increased size of the store, which is to be fitted with balcony and gallery, will afford an excellent opportunity for an attractive display of the fine stock of furniture carried by the firm.

The storeroom in the Masonic building, now occupied by the Sonoma Valley Furniture Company, will be partitioned off and sub-let, a considerable portion being retained by Mr. Picetti for the use of his business.

The upper story will contain oriel windows fronting on both streets—Napa street and First street West. Six rooms of the floor are to comprise the offices of Drs. A. M. Thomson and W. B. Hays. The new quarters of Sonoma's popular and successful medics will be very elegant, convenient and pleasantly situated.

Plans for the building are being drawn by H. L. Halentine, an architect, who has recently located in the Sonoma Valley.

Sonoma is to be congratulated on having as a citizen, a man of the progressive ideas and enterprise that has Mr. Bulotti. Men who have the capital to invest, and who are willing to venture into an undertaking which one is not absolutely sure will always prove profitable are not numerous, therefore the appreciation of Mr. Bulotti's investment.

NARROWLY ESCAPE SERIOUS INJURY

Mesdames T. M. Price and K. E. Buchan, and Miss Amy Rowe, all well and favorably known here, are receiving the congratulations of their friends on their narrow escape from serious injury Friday evening of last week. The ladies, accompanied by Rev. Price, who was carrying a lighted lantern, were on their way to the McAllister home, Ralph Busby, driving along in the same direction, took the ladies in his car as far as the Vineburg turn of the road, from where they continued the journey on foot.

Arm in arm the three walked along the platform in front of the Silverstein grocery, at the red tank, mistaking it in the darkness for a sidewalk, from which, without warning, they stepped off, falling into the ditch, a distance of between five and six feet.

Mrs. Buchan, not realizing the severity of her injuries, crawled out of the ditch and awakened the Silverstein family, who managed to render assistance.

A machine was summoned, and Dr. W. B. Hays called to attend the ladies. Mrs. Price sustained a badly sprained ankle, Mrs. Buchan suffered the dislocation of several ribs, and Miss Rowe's left arm was badly bruised and wrenched. All of the ladies suffered severely from shock as well, as the experience was certainly a harrowing one. Under the skillful care of Dr. Hays, all are doing well.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT

The finals in the tennis tournament under the auspices of the California Interscholastic Federation will be held at the High School grounds this (Saturday) afternoon, November 21st, at two o'clock.

Sonoma will compete in the doubles with San Rafael High School, and in the singles with Sebastopol.

The team representing this High School will be composed of Bunker Dresel, captain, and Fred Danielson.

An admission of fifteen cents will be charged to all school children and twenty-five cents for adults.

Thanks to the efforts of Mrs. Carrie A. Burlingame, president of the Sonoma Valley Woman's Club, and Mesdames Appleton, Stofen, Clewe, Bates, Eaton and Woodworth the Belgian Relief Ship, which sails from San Francisco next week, will carry more than two thousand pounds of dried fruit from the Valley of the Moon. Next week we will give a complete list of contributors.

LOCAL NEWS OF SONOMA AND IMMEDIATE VICINITY

Walter Bonner, of the Index-Tribune staff, was a week-end visitor in the Bay City.

Miss Gertrude Calderwood enjoyed a visit with San Francisco relatives and friends during this week.

Constable-elect J. H. Murray was a prominent Sonoma Valley resident in Santa Rosa the fore part of the week.

Miss Jeanette Hansen, a popular and accommodating "central" in the local telephone office, spent Sunday in San Francisco.

Mayor and Mrs. Wm. Von Hacht joyfully passed the weekend with relatives in Santa Rosa. Mr. Von Hacht, one of the past presidents of Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons, attended the joint initiation.

Mrs. F. W. Boynton returned from San Francisco, Friday afternoon of last week, after a pleasant visit with her sister, Mrs. C. C. Reidy. Mrs. Boynton was present at the nuptials of her nephew, Dodge A. Reidy and Miss Marie Green on Nov. 3d.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hotz and little son motored to Healdsburg, Sunday for a brief visit with relatives, returning Monday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Hotz were accompanied by Henry Englund, who has been enjoying a week's vacation with his brother-in-law and sister, Pharmacist and Mrs. Jack Brown.

The Grey Eagle Social Club of Glen Ellen will give a novel Serpentine Dance, at Chauvet Hall, Saturday, Nov. 28th. The Gottenberg-Perkins Orchestra will furnish the music, which insures a "wo, 't-go-home-until-morning" time for dancers. Messrs. Jack Smith, M. Ferguson and M. Goelecker comprise the floor committee.

J. Steckmeyer has recently completed an attractive five-roomed bungalow for Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hansen, of El Verano. Mr. Steckmeyer is now erecting a large barn and putting up a windmill on the same place. Mr. and Mrs. Hansen are among the most enterprising residents of progressive El Verano and their home property is a reflection of their up-to-date ideas.

H. C. Manuel, with a force of about ten men, is at work filling an order from the Board of Public Works of San Francisco for two hundred and fifty thousand basalt blocks, which are being hewn from the Vallejo quarries. Basalt blocks are bringing a fairly remunerative price at the present time, hence the order placed with Mr. Manuel means a small measure of prosperity for worthy Sonoma Valley residents.

The funeral of Miss Vera Elizabeth Pohley was held from the residence of Mrs. M. Pohley, the grandmother of the deceased, on Monday afternoon, at two o'clock. Rev. J. Henry Oehlhoff, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, conducted the services, which were attended by a large number of the friends of the family. The interment was in Mountain Cemetery.

Busby & Coates, the energetic proprietors of the Sonoma Valley Bicycle Store, are also agents for the celebrated Ford automobile—the most popular and satisfactory auto on the market. This reliable and accommodating firm have sold a number of these machines hereabouts, all of which are giving the most perfect satisfaction to their owners. If you contemplate the purchase of an automobile, have Busby & Coates demonstrate for you the Ford.

The Apollos Club, an organization of young men, was perfected last week by Rev. Edwin F. Brown, pastor of the Methodist Church. The object of the club is for improvement along not only religious, but social, intellectual and athletic lines. Committees were appointed to direct the various activities of the club, as follows: Henry Waltz, athletics; Harold Stockwell, social; Robt. Harrison, literary. The club is officiated by Clyde M. Johansen as president; Walter C. Bonner, secretary, and Rev. E. F. Brown, treasurer.

At the special song service given at Trinity Episcopal Church by St. Paul's Church quartet, of Healdsburg, Sunday night, the solo work was especially fine. Mrs. Curtis charmingly rendered "The Angels' Serenade," with violin and organ accompaniment, and Dr. Morse rendered the tenor solo, "The Golden Pathway," exceedingly well. "Largo," from Handel, was splendidly given on the violin by Miss Flewelling. An interesting address on "The True Spirit of Praise in the Sanctuary," was delivered by Rev. Robt. McFarlane of Healdsburg.

Donald Revie, who is fitting himself as a machinist, in San Francisco, is taking an enforced vacation as the result of a severe and self-inflicted injury, sustained Sunday last. Donald was cleaning a revolver preparatory to going on a hunt, and during the process the weapon was accidentally discharged, the ball penetrating the index finger of the left hand at the knuckle. The young man came up to his home in this city, Monday evening, and Dr. Irving C. Gobar is attending the injured member, which is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McAllister very pleasantly entertained a number of friends, principally young people, at their comfortable suburban home, Friday night of last week. The unfortunate accident to Mesdames Price and Buchan and Miss Rowe, en route to the party, greatly marred the happiness of the occasion. However, a good time was had, Mr. and Mrs. McAllister having the faculty of creating pleasure easily and completely. Musical numbers by Miss Hattie Rice, Vineburg's competent piano instructor, and Messrs. Janzen, Knolle and Busby, contributed to the evening's entertainment.

MEETS DEATH BY ELECTROCUTION

Workman on the Jack London Place Daringly Handles Live Wire with Fatal Results.

George Lawrie, a workman employed at Wake Robin Lodge, the Jack London home, met death by electrocution, Wednesday morning between eight and nine o'clock.

The unfortunate man had been employed as an extra hand some time back, and a few days ago he returned seeking a position. As he was in very straitened circumstances, he was given employment. He was to have been discharged on the day on which he met his death, and his tragic ending, coupled with his extreme destitution, renders his passing unusually pitiable. Somewhere, undoubtedly, there are those who would have succored the unfortunate man had they but known, as his personality indicated his having been well reared.

On the morning of the fatality, an electric light wire had become detached by the force of a blast, and a guard was stationed to prevent any person from coming in contact with the "live wire" until the arrival of Manager Ralph Evans of the Telephone and Light Company to replace the wire. In the meantime, Lawrie came down to where the men were blasting for a drink of water, and was warned of the danger. He replied that he was not afraid, as he was an electrician and that, if he had a pair of pliers, he could "fix the wire."

Lawrie, heedless of persistent warnings, grasped the wire, death following instantaneously. The deceased was a native of Scotland, and was fifty-two years of age. He was a man of good education, and papers found on his person showed that he had served in the Boer war. No family connections are known of, save a sister in Vancouver.

How many wonders can you explain? You do not class things as wonders that you can explain. You know there are wonders. They do not exist by virtue of your belief in them. O, no! We'll just have sense. I do not know how the tho't of God, as we may have those tho'ts in Jesus, and the Bible changes and enlarges a man but they do. They do make him a new creation. In this new creation which is spiritual discernment, he may move the arm of God by prayer. Innumerable are the hosts of the human race who have prayed in the prayer position, and have experienced the answer. You had better come to church, and let God give you some real, new thought.

The Y. P. S. C. E. will meet at 6:30 p. m. in the church parlors. The young people are invited.

The Evening Service at 7:30 o'clock

The world has moved on from the tallow dip to the electric light. That is but one way of advance, but the human race has not awakened to the fact that what made a good man when I was a boy will not make a Christian of the twentieth century. It would be a relief if all realized that we must do some new thinking. Come out to church Sunday night, while we give you an insight to the New Heroism of our day. It is not in the European war, in its designers at least.
